

Dr. Armenak Utudjian
(born 07.07.1964)

President of the Austrian Bar

1010 Vienna
Wollzeile 1-3

Tel: +43 1 535 12 75 - 0
E-Mail: utudjian@oerak.at

Education and Career:

- 1986: Graduation from the University of Vienna with a Magister iuris degree
- 1989: Doctor iuris degree from the University of Vienna
- 2005: Executive Master of Law for European and International Business Law, St. Gallen
- 1989 to 1993: Trainee lawyer with Brauneegg, Hoffmann & Partner, Vienna
- 1993: Legal traineeship in Athens, Greece
- 1993 to 2009: Partner of the law firm Brauneegg, Hoffmann & Partner, Vienna
- 2009 to 2021: Partner of Graf & Pitkowitz Rechtsanwälte GmbH, Vienna
- Since 2021: Partner of GRAF ISOLA Rechtsanwälte GmbH, Vienna

Offices:

- President of the Austrian Bar (ÖRAK) since 23 September 2022, re-elected in 2023
- Vice President of the Austrian Bar from 2011 to 2022
- Delegate to the Assembly of Representatives of the Austrian Bar
- Member of the Board of the Vienna Bar
- Vice President of the Austrian Federal Conference of the Freelance Professions since 2021
- Member of boards of trustees of various private foundations

Languages:

German, English, Greek, Armenian

Specialisation:

- Public Law
- Property Law and Building Contract Law
- Law on Private Foundations and Inheritance Law
- Business Law and Company Law
- Medical Contract Law, including contracts with Social Security Providers

